Thursday 22 September 2018 at 19:45 Alfred & Salamanda Once again we are delighted to welcome back The Alfred & Salamanda Saxophone Quartet, whose popular concerts never fail to enthral us at Honeywood Museum. The quartet gives recitals, plays for weddings and at garden and birthday parties and has helped raise money for charities such as Save the Children, Macular Society and The Rotary Club. This evening's concert will be an eclectic mix of music arranged for saxophone quartet. There will be no interval but refreshments will be taken after the concert in the drawing room. The concert will last for approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes. Tickets: £6.00 (£7.00 for non-members) – includes post-concert wine and nibbles
October's details have yet to be announced Please keep an eye on our Web site www.friendsofhoneywood.co.uk/Events.htm
Thursday 22 November 2018 at 19:30 Jane Seymour – The Haunted Queen We're delighted to welcome back Alison Weir for another of her popular talks Against a backdrop of religious revolution, plague and insurrection, Jane, newly married to Henry, must bear the son he desperately needs - or face the consequences. Will she be able to give the King what he wants? Tickets: £6.00 (£7.00 for non-members) – includes mulled wine and mince pies
Thursday 28 February 2019 at 19:30 The Ponds – Houses and People 1863-1913 The illustrated talk by local historian John Phillips covering the years 1890-1914, which sold out in 2018, is updated to cover 1860-1913. John will look at the people living in the large houses around Carshalton Ponds in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. It was a period when Carshalton was beginning to change into a suburb but much of the old village was still in place. It was a society shattered by the First World War and which disappeared rapidly thereafter. Tickets: £4.00 (£5.00 for non-members)

FREE tea and coffee served from 19:00 in the Drawing Room (not at September and November events)
