Thursday 27 September 2018 at 19:45 Alfred & Salamanda Once again, we are delighted to welcome back The Alfred & Salamanda Saxophone Quartet, whose popular concerts never fail to enthral us at Honeywood Museum. The quartet gives recitals, plays for weddings and at garden and birthday parties and has helped raise money for charities such as Save the Children, Macular Society and The Rotary Club. This evening's concert will be an eclectic mix of music arranged for saxophone quartet. There will be no interval, but refreshments will be taken after the concert in the drawing room. The concert will last for approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes. Tickets: £6.00 (£7.00 for non-members) – includes post-concert wine and nibbles
Wednesday 24 October 2018 at 19:30 British Black Civil Rights Heroines The bias in schools gives the impression that racism and civil rights was an American issue and totally ignores the struggles Black British people endured. Tony Warner's presentation will provide the names and achievements of those Black women born or resident here that fought against British racism over the last 300 years. We will be joined by members of the Black Cultural Archives, Brixton. Tickets: £4.00 (£5.00 for non-members)
Thursday 28 February 2019 at 19:30 The Ponds – Houses and People 1860-1913 The illustrated talk by local historian John Phillips covering the years 1890-1914, which sold out in 2018, is updated to cover 1860-1913. John will look at the people living in the large houses around Carshalton Ponds in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. It was a period when Carshalton was beginning to change into a suburb but much of the old village was still in place. It was a society shattered by the First World War and which disappeared rapidly thereafter. Tickets: £4.00 (£5.00 for non-members)
Thursday 28 March 2019 at 19:30 A Trip around South-East England by Train An illustrated talk by Carshalton's transport historian John Parkin. More details to follow. Tickets: £4.00 (£5.00 for non-members)
Thursday 25 April 2019 at 19:30 The History of Ordnance Survey John Dancy - Since the eighteenth century when English generals realised that available mapping wasn't suitable for hunting rebellious Scotsmen across acres of wild Scottish Highlands the Ordnance Survey has been the country's national mapping organisation, now responsible for keeping millions of pieces of data up to date for British business and citizens. Tickets: £4.00 (£5.00 for non-members)
