

Where is Honeywood Museum?

Honeywood Museum is the white building at the end of Honeywood Walk, and faces directly onto Carshalton Ponds opposite the Greyhound Hotel in Pound Street. Click on the + and - signs at the bottom right corner of the map to zoom in and out.

Accessibility

Honeywood Museum does its utmost to accommodate the needs of those with additional needs. The ground floor is fully wheelchair-accessible, though access to the floors above is restricted. A wheelchair-accessible is available.

Travelling by foot

Honeywood can be accessed from North Street by way of Honeywood Walk, West Street by way of Festival Walk, or directly from Pound Street.

Travelling by bus

Click HERE for the Carshalton bus map

127 Purley - Woodcote Green - Wallington - Carshalton - Hackbridge - Mitcham - Tooting Broadway

157 Morden - Rosehill - St. Helier Hospital - Carshalton - Wallington - Waddon - Croydon - Selhurst - Norwood Junction - Anerley - Crystal Palace

407 Caterham - Whyteleafe - Purley - South Croydon - Croydon - Waddon - Wallington Green - Carshalton - Sutton

S3 Belmont (Sutton Hospital) - Carshalton Beeches - Carshalton - Sutton - Sutton Common - Worcester Park (NOT SUNDAYS)

X26 West Croydon - East Croydon - Wallington Green - Carshalton - Sutton - Cheam - North Cheam - Worcester Park - New Malden - Kingston - Teddington - Hatton Cross - Heathrow (STOPS ONLY WHERE SHOWN)

Buses 127 and 157 stop in North Street near the end of Honeywood Walk. Bus 407 stops in Pound Street. All these, together with the X26, stop in Carshalton High Street. The S3 stops in West Street, a short walk away.

Travelling by train

Southern - Victoria, Clapham Junction, Balham, Mitcham Eastfields, Mitcham Jct, Hackbridge, Carshalton, Sutton, Cheam, Ewell East and Epsom

Luton, London, Carshalton, Sutton and Wimbledon (Thameslink)

Honeywood is about five minutes walk from Carshalton railway station, which is not to be confused with Carshalton Beeches. There are frequent services from Epsom, Sutton, West Croydon and London Victoria and the stations in between. Balham, with its connection with the Underground's Northern Line, is just four stations away.

Travelling by car

Honeywood is adjacent to the A232 in Carshalton, between Sutton and Croydon

There is limited on-street parking in the immediate area around Honeywood. There is no parking in Honeywood Walk between 10:00 and 11:00. There are two public Car Parks adjacent to Carshalton High Street.

Hotels

The Greyhound Hotel in Pound Street is across the road from Honeywood. It is a small friendly hotel and public house steeped in the history of Carshalton, and is run by the well-known London brewer Youngs. Youngs have another long-standing hotel and public house at the Junction of Manor Road and Acre Lane, The Duke's Head Hotel on Wallington Green.